

A Burning Heart Encounter with Jesus

Welcome the presence of God – He is here and He wants to teach you Himself!
(Isaiah 54:13, Jeremiah 31:33-34, John 14:26, Ephesians 1:17-19, 1 John 2:27)

Get into the scene together with the One who was there when it happened and when it was written. It's not just about understanding, it's about encountering! The Word became flesh!
(John 1:14, Hebrews 1:1-3, 1 John 1:1-3)

How does it look? Sound? What does it feel like? To God? To the people involved? How would you feel if you were there watching it unfold? How would you feel if you were the one it was happening to?

Begin a conversation with God about God. Thankfulness, asking, and responding.

What does this tell me about who You are?

Your thoughts, Your emotions, Your ways, Your desires, Your power, Your beauty...

Jesus, thank You for revealing how You are _____.

Jesus, I ask You would reveal to me more and more the nature of God that is _____.

I commit to believe that this is who You are. You are _____ even when the world and my circumstances and experience and feelings may try to tell me otherwise.

What does this tell me about who You are towards me?

Father, thank You that You are _____ towards me.

Father, I welcome You to be _____ towards me more and more. Help me live connected with that part of Your heart toward me.

I commit to receiving and abiding in Your _____ towards me.

What does this tell me about who You are in and through me?

Holy Spirit, thank You that You are in me, and You are _____, so I am _____.

Holy Spirit, I invite You to express this part of Your heart in and through me. I ask for the full manifestation of this part of Your nature in my life. Make me _____ as You are _____.

I commit to let You be Yourself in me. Help me not to grieve or quench Your desire to be _____ in me.
